PIERCE LEFT FOR ST. LOUIS.

Employment of G. W. Allen Gives Rise to Comment.

Austin, Texas, Nov. 10.—H. Clay Pierce changed his program today and left for St. Louis tonight instead of for Texas points, having abandoned his proposed hunting expedition to Houston and Galveston. He will not stop at any Texas point. He is not expected to return until his case is up for trial. The case is set for the January term of the court although it may not be tried until February.
Mr. Pierce's departure was without incident. He was paid numerous courtesies by friends this afternoon, spending most of the time in the automobile of James E. Lucy, seeing the sights.

The employment of G. W. Allen by Pierce has caused considerable comment here. Mr. Allen has just re-ing for the crop and appointed a committee to see if capital could not be enlisted.

SAN ANTONIO CHILD DROWNED.

Fell Into a Hole Where Excavation Had Been Made.

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 10.—By a terrible accident Frankie Umscheid, the 3 year old son of William Umsscheid, 126 Labor street, lost his life this morning. The child fell into a hole filled with water and drowned before it could be rescued. Several deep holes had been sunk in the yard adjoining the Umscheid residence for the foundation of a new building which was to be erected. It was into one of these that the child fell.

TWO CUT IN A GENERAL MIX-UP.

Nobody Knows Who Did the Cutting or What the Row Was About.

Houston, Texas, Nov. 10.—In what seems to have been a general mix-up tonight at the corner of Main and Preston avenue, A. J. Watts, a young man who is attending the carnival from near Livingston, and H. R. Jersey, a souvenir man who has been working for Mr. Croner, were cut.
Watts was cut in the back and has a bad bruise over the left eye from being hit probably with some hard instrument like a cane, but is not very badly hurt. He did not know he was cut until he was taken to the police station and, as he says, felt his shirt was wet and looking found it was blood from his wound. Jersey, the other man, was stabbed through the lower ribs to the lung cavity and is badly cut, but it is not known as yet whether seriously or not. It is stated at the hospital, where he was carried, that he was resting easily, but it might be several days before they will be able to tell as to the seriousness of the wound. The streets were very crowded and it is not known who did the cutting or how many were cut.

When seen at the police station tonight Watts stated that he knew nothing of the row except that he was hit. "I was standing on the corner," he said, "watching the parade and started to step upon a sack of confetti and a man in charge of a stand there told me not to get on that sack.
I said, 'All right,' and got off. Then I was hit and my hat knocked off.
And then the officers got me and brought me here. I did not know I was cut until I got here and felt my shirt wet. I couldn't tell you who hit me or anything about it except that I'm hurt."

He did not know that the other man was hurt until he came to the station, he said.

Watts is being held pending an investigation of the case which the officers are making.

REPLY TO GOVERNOR.

Railroads, Through Judge Stedman, Discuss Two-Cent Fares.

Austin, Texas, Nov. 10.—Judge N.
A. Stedman, legal representative of a number of leading railroads in the state, in a seventeen-page typewritten statement given out today, claims that the attempt of Governor Campbell and Railroad Commissioner Colquitt to have the legislature enact a law reducing passenger fares in Texas from three cents to two and one-half cents is an effort to retaliate because the Railroad Commission last January refused to reduce the rates, and also because the railroads recently increased the interstate freight rates 10 per cent.

Judge Stedman endeavored to show that by reducing the fare to two and one-half cents the revenues of the railroads would have been further decreased $4,350,000 this year. He replies to an interview with the governor and one with Mr. Colquitt, printed recently, and contends that it is the function of the Railroad Commission to reduce and regulate passenger rates, if such is found necessary, and not the duty of the legislature.

NOTES FROM THE LABOR WORLD

At Bedford, Mass., three unions of carpenters and joiners have appointed a committee to examine applications for admission into either union.
The applicant must demonstrate by working out fifteen or twenty problems with his tools and he is only received if his demonstration is satisfactory.

One of the courts in Michigan has decided that a foreign corporation which has failed to register with the secretary of state and pay a franchise fee, has no status in court to maintain a suit for injunction to prevent a union from interfering with its business. The case will probably be appealed.

Chinese butchers and meat market men of San Francisco, who some time ago made application to become affil-petition down at one of its recent meetings, without giving any reason.
